

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Robert Brekke
Publishers Design Group
Post Office Box 37
Roseville, CA 95678
1-800-916-784-0500
www.publishersdesign.com

PIER FISHING IN CALIFORNIA, VOLUME 2, BY KEN JONES, ACCLAIMED AS THE “BIBLE” FOR INSHORE FISHERMEN.

Roseville, CA, May 15, 2004 — Pier Fishing In California, Volume 2, has been greeted with acclaim by anglers, history buffs, and those interested in traveling the coast of California. To inshore anglers fishing the piers and shoreline areas of California it has become a “Bible.” Historians find a little known treasure trove of information concerning California’s early wharves and piers and the role they played in establishing seaside California towns. For travelers it offers a compendium of interesting sites, and a map, for trips and get-a-ways along the coast. Not just a fishing book, but a book that examines the rich, diverse, and interesting culture of California’s piers, it is a must book for anyone living in or planning to visit coastal California.

“This book is positively biblical in scope. If pier fishing is a religion, and perhaps it is, Ken Jones is certainly its prophet.”

—Milton Love, Marine Biologist, University of California Marine Science Institute, Santa Barbara, and director of “The Love Lab.”

“The ultimate resource for Pacific Coast pier anglers is Ken Jones’ remarkable book Pier Fishing in California: The Complete Coast and Bay Guide...The first edition was a 200-page volume covering 92 piers from the Mexican border to the Oregon border, but the vastly expanded second edition runs 528 pages and covers 113 piers...Over 350 new photos and illustrations have been added, including detailed, species-specific illustrations of fish-cleaning, rigging illustrations, and maps. An “encyclopedia” of the 100 most commonly caught pier species is also completely illustrated. The sheer amount of research and experience that’s gone into this book is simply mind-boggling. Even if you’re not a dedicated pier angler, it’s a fascinating read and an admirable accomplishment.”

—Zack Thomas, Pacific Coast Sportfishing

For more information about Pier Fishing In California, Volume 2, or to order a copy, visit www.publishersdesign.com, phone 1-916-784-0500, or visit www.pierfishing.com.